HOLIDAY DESIGN

Michael Skaff AIFD
Vice President of Floral Design

The holiday season is fast approaching and it's time once again to set up your shop to appeal to a broad range of customers looking to send bouquets and arrangements to friends and family as well as decorate their own home. Display your seasonal arrangements early to give your consumers a sneak preview of what's to come, helping you to book sales far in advance and allowing you time to prepare for the busy holiday season ahead. Choosing a simple yet elegant container, such as these mercury glass mirror bubble bowls, and using them for an assortment of varied seasonal bouquets can boost sales. The consumer may be looking for centerpiece ideas or ways to incorporate seasonal style throughout the home or office so give them options in textures and color this year.
